Christmas drive is launched

By BILL WINTER
Editor

Christmas—the happiest time of the year. And sometimes the saddest, depending on an individual's or family's circumstances.

A call to "reach out to others" to bring Christmas cheer to them was voiced by Salvation Army Captain Elmer Trapp at yesterday's 1978 holiday season "Tree of Lights" campaign kickoff luncheon.

Capt. Trapp; and Bruce Mort, drive chairman.

Efforts are being made to raise $25,000 to provide food, clothing, toys and other holiday aid to 750 or more area families.

Granite City Rotary Vice-President Darryl Slater opened the meeting, and the guest speaker was introduced by Richard Sues.

Those introduced included Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk, Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler and Madison-Venice Rotary President Albert Hudzik. Granite City Rotarians sponsored the luncheon, held at the Salvation Army building on East 23rd Street.

Mort described the Tree of Lights campaign as a joyous task and emphasized that the full drive goal is needed. President Kerch and Capt. Trapp outlined Salvation Army services.

It was noted in the introduction that Maxvill played baseball for Granite City school and community teams before graduating as an electrical engineer from Washington University, having worked summers at Granite City Steel during his college years.

Now 38, he won five World Series rings, three as a shortstop for the St. Louis Cardinals and two as a player at Oakland, where his first instructions upon his arrival were to "grow a moustache" in exchange for $300.

Maxvill compared the present St. Louis newspaper strike with the 1978 New York City strike, during which New York Mets players could make outrageously humorous comments to sports writers in the knowledge they couldn't be quoted.

A third base coach with the Mets, he now will coach first base and work with Cardinal infielders on their throwing skills.

Conceding that pitcher Bob Gibson's desire for a strong defense helped spotlight Maxvill's fielding ability, the speaker

PROPOSED INDUSTRIAL PARK discussed last night. It is bordered on the top by former Highway 66, on the left by the Chain of Rocks Canal and on the right by Illinois Route Three.

Industrial park plan

A resolution setting a public hearing at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 12, to consider a proposed "annexation agreement" involving a 427-acre industrial tract was approved by the City Council in its regular meeting Tuesday night.

Location of the hearing will be the aldermanic chambers in the City Hall of Granite City.

The resolution made no specific reference to the specific use of the land, noting only that the hearing will be held to consider an annexation agreement between "the city of Granite City and the Citizens' National Bank of Decatur, Ill., as trustee, under a trust agreement of April 27, 1971." Illinois Power Co. is the owner of the site.

There was no comment by the aldermen last night concerning the proposal for annexation or the use of the tract, which is being made available for use as an industrial park. It is southwest of old Highway 66 and Route Three.

The resolution for the hearing was approved by a vote of 11 aldermen with one abstention. Aldermen Clyde Boyd and Glen Sprankle were absent.

The abstention was by Alderman Gerald Parnley, who explained that he had attended neither of two discussions held by council members concerning the annexation. He added, "I want to learn more about it" before voting on any procedure.

Parnley later told the Press-Record that zoning is involved, since the tract usage would involve "heavy industry."

"The zoning is important because it will determine the factors relating to sewers and drainage," Parnley said. "I want to see these matters cleared up so that I know what I'm voting for."

Officials indicated there is no direct relation between the annexation and the possibility that a Datsun automobile assembly plant may be built in the United States.

However, Datsun representatives have indicated a positive reaction to this site, along with a 486-acre Union Electric Co. tract northeast of Interstate 270 and Highway Three, plus several other U. S. sites. They have inspected both local tracts.

The 427-acre Illinois Power site has a link on the north to former Highway 66 (Chain of Rocks Road) and is connected on the south with the city boundary line. It is east of the Chain of Rocks Canal and immediately west of Illinois Highway Three.

Treatment fees doubled

By HARRY BARNES

Press-Record Staff Writer

Fees paid by the average Granite City household for sanitary sewage treatment were increased Tuesday night—by 116.6 percent.

City Council members, by a vote of 11 to 1, concurred in a recommendation that sewage treatment fees for operation of the city's secondary sewage treatment plant be increased sharply, and immediately, if the city is to meet its bond payments and debt service obligations.

The action will increase the sewer treatment bill for the average residence and small business from the current payment of $6 per quarter to $13 per quarter.

Proportionate increase will be paid for treatment cost, sewer use, billing cost and debt service by larger business and industry on a sliding scale based on water usage.

As an example, the city's heaviest water user at the present time, Nestle, Inc., paid a sewer bill of $42,000 for its last quarter. That cost will increase to about $62,000 under the new schedule.

The recommendation that the city act immediately to avoid a lower rating of its credit for bond sales came from Dennis Muir, a representative of Curry Lenhardt & Co., a St. Louis accounting firm that handles the city's auditing work. The firm had been retained to make a rate study for the treatment plant operation to determine the status of the city's sewer treatment account.

During a caucus session that began at 7 p.m., an hour before the regularly scheduled council meeting, Muir told the aldermen that Allstate Insurance Co.,

which holds a majority of the sewage treatment plant construction bonds, had told him that unless the city council acted in Tuesday night's meeting, the firm would be inclined "to write down these bonds."

To do so, Muir explained, the bondholders could damage the city's credit in any future bond transactions and put the city in the position of defaulting on its treatment plant bonds. The bond issue was handled by the Columbia Securities Co. of Chicago which also "has expressed alarm

Assail rail repair delay

A "hard-line approach" to a series of problems involving the Illinois Central Gulf Railroad and the condition of its crossings and right-of-way, was taken by city officials today following a delay by the railroad in proceeding with the job of repairing the West Pontoon grade crossing.

Santa's on the way—Page 6

As a result, City Engineer Monroe Brewer has informed William J. Taylor, president of ICG, that the railroad hereafter will be required to give the city 45 days advance notice on proposed crossing closures, and that the railroad must designate an executive to deal with the city in future efforts to resolve maintenance and operational problems.

In addition, Brewer said in a letter to Taylor, the ICG must arrange with Norfolk & Western Railroad and Conrail to repair their crossings at West Pontoon Road at the same time ICG plans its work.

In the detailed letter of explanation, Brewer said:

"The Illinois Central Gulf Railroad operates a mainline track through the city of Granite City and in the past several weeks some problems have arisen, regarding the maintenance and operation of this facility which the city is having a great deal of agony resolving with the officials of the ICG Railroad on the level which we are forced to deal.

"The problem which has existed the longest is the high weeds along the right-of-way. In the past, letters have been sent to the ICG asking that weeds be cut but to no avail. Complaints subsequently were filed in Circuit Court starting in July of 1978 and as of the first week in November, no attempt has been made to cut the weeds.

"After a meeting regarding ICG's failure to properly install a section of track at the Niedringhaus crossing, at which time the weed situation was again mentioned, the track superintendent for this area seemed to be unaware of the problem. Subsequently, weeds have been cut within 200 feet of crossings only, which is merely a token effort and not within the intent of the ordinance which states all weeds must be kept under eight inches in height.

"Complaints will not stop until ICG

GOOD MANNERS ARE IMPORTANT and third graders of Harris School at Madison practice them Tuesday noon in Charlie's Restaurant, a guest of Charles Hester, operator of the restaurant. At the far end of the table, young Jody Hinnen, center, talks with Hostess Kay Kincer, as Sandy Outley, also a hostess at the restaurant, talks with two other members of the class at right. The students have been studying all types of manners for three weeks and the highlight of the study session for the children is the luncheon. The students were accompanied by Madison Police Sgt. Norris Horton, Mrs. Evelyn Holt, cafeteria director for the Madison School District, and Mrs. Georgia Stawar, one of the third-grade teachers. Mrs. Lois Brazil, Harris school third-grade teacher, was ill and could not attend with the children.

Newsmakers Honored by Girl Scouts

High honors were bestowed by the River Bluffs Girl Scout Council this month on Mrs. David (Myra) Parrish, 2544 Waterman Ave., recipient of this year's district award. She has been actively involved in the Girl Scouts since 1964.

Mrs. Parrish became a Brownie leader when her daughter came home with a Brownie flyer from school. She progressed to Junior assistant leader and Cadette leader.

"She was even daring enough to take a group of Cadettes to 'Wagons Ho' in Kansas and returned with a full head count," it was noted at the award presentation.

"She helped coordinate the Senior Scout conference in 1974. In 1975-76, she served as a neighborhood chairman in Neighborhood Five. It is here that she received first-hand experience as a troop organizer and troop consultant. This is what has made her so successful today as a neighborhood service team leader, and it has aided her in helping new leaders.

Beside volunteering her time to the Girl Scouts at the neighborhood level, she has given and still is giving much of her time to Girl Scouting at the district and council levels. Presently, she is a member-at-large on the River Bluffs board of directors. In 1977, hundreds of Girl Scouts participated in "fair at the square" and celebrated Thinking Day. They demonstrated international games and songs, dances, crafts and costumes from all over the world. Myra Parrish was the chairman for the council event that year.

She served as a coordinator for the largest metropolitan Girl and Boy Scout event in 1976, held at Busch Stadium. Over 2,000 children participated in "The Spirit of '76 and Beyond" as part of the U.S. Bicentennial observance.

Helping girls receive wider opportunities at all levels was one of her main goals in 1976-77. This year, the program services committee received a "yes" response that she again is willing to be an HGWIO interviewer for 1978-79.

On the district level, she has devoted much time to Girl Scouting in the Quad-Cities. She served as community chairman for Friends of Girl Scouts in 1977 and raised over $1,300. Granite City was one of the leading cities in the council.

She was on the Friends of Girl Scouts steering committee for 1977-79, and this year is on the Speakers Bureau of Granite City and has raised money to aid children who otherwise would have lacked the chance to be in a Girl Scout troop.

Since 1976, Mrs. Parrish has served as a district chairman. She seeks a close teamwork relationship with seven neighborhood chairmen and field advisers.

Several of the neighborhood chairmen have commented that she is patient and understanding and serves as an effective problem solver.

Besides being a wife, mother and a hard worker for the Girl Scouts, she is active in church work.

In 1975-76, she served as a high school church school teacher at Central Christian Church and also was church school superintendent and a board member.

Mrs. Parrish is an active choir member and a member of the Opti-Mrs. Club of Granite City.

She was the chairman of the Church Women United "Days of Celebration 1978" and presently is on the board of directors of the United Christian Foundation at SIUE.

As the district award was being presented, it was asserted that "Myra Parrish is a lovable, likable, helpful person. She has devoted much of her life to being around people, helping them and her community."

"She has a beautiful quality of always saying yes when she is asked to help. She is loved for her intangible personal qualities and is well deserving of the District IV award."

Assail delay

shows that it intends to continually comply with the ordinances of this city.

"The more pressing problem concerns the Pontoon Road crossing. The ICG tracks at this crossing are in extremely poor conditions as well as the crossing surface. This condition has existed for many months. A meeting was held with ICG supervisors, Ray Peterson, chief engineer of the Illinois Commerce Commission, engineering representative of the city of Granite City regarding the closure of this crossing for repair.

"Pontoon Road carries almost 10,000 cars per day and is the only crossing within a mile and one half in either direction. The amount of time involved in the closure is, therefore, critical. It was agreed at that time that pending approval of the City Council that the ICG would not raise the rails 3" above the concrete approach as they seemed intent upon doing, the crossing would be closed for three days, an old abandoned set of tracks would be removed from the crossing by ICG and the city subsequently agreed to spend about $5,000 to extend an existing asphalt contract to cover the area of the removed track and improve the grade on that side of the crossing which is now inadequate.

"The City Council approved the three-day closure at their meeting on the ninth of November and due to the holiday on the 10th, ICG was notified early the following week on the 14th that they could start work.

"The response was that work could only start the 20th at the earliest and to the amount of work, it would not be completed Wednesday, the 22nd, meaning it would be closed for a four day holiday.

"The City responded by indicating that if work could start, we would over look the closing during the weekend of the 18th to have the crossing opened by the Thanksgiving weekend.

"The City was told secondhand via someone in the division engineer's office that the best thing would be to start work after the Thanksgiving holiday. Herein lies the situation at this point:

"1. ICG wanted to start a project that required warmer weather, i.e. the involvement of asphalt work.

"2. ICG thinks that we are going to have this work performed in their leisure under their terms.

"3. The city of Granite City has held up more pressing projects to design a new approach and arrange for the availability of an asphalt contractor at our expense.

"4. A project that started to take only three days now requires more than that amount of time according to ICG.

"5. Everytime the matter is discussed, the city of Granite City is given a different person to talk to at the division office. The division engineer apparently will not talk to us.

"6. By the time ICG decides on a suitable date for this work the weather will be satisfactory for track work, but not for asphalt work. The net result will be that ICG track will be fixed and the city of Granite City will be stuck with a temporarily repaired approach for the duration of the winter.

"The bottom line is . . . the condition of the track is apparently in reasonably good enough condition that ICG can afford to defer its maintenance. The city of Granite City can, again, in as past years, muddle through the winter by filling the holes in between the loose ties and rails and the actual repair work can be performed in the spring.

"If at this time, the ICG railroad desires to request a crossing closure, it will be considered under the following conditions:

"1. The city will be notified 45 days in advance, in writing, of the dates in which ICG desires to close the crossing.

"2. ICG will notify the Norfolk & Western and Conrail Railroads of the proposed closure and coordinated with them efforts to repair all tracks at the Pontoon Road crossing at the same time during the same closure.

"3. The crossing will in any event be closed for no more than three days each period to be guaranteed in writing by the ICG railroad prior to closure.

"4. The ICG will designate one and only one executive above the level of the division engineer to coordinate the closure with the city of Granite City to resolve the city's past problems trying to discern lines of supervision and importance of supervisors in ICG's organization.

"5. ICG will at the time of request for closure, submit plans showing what work is to be performed and more particularly how the drainage problem at the crossing, under the tracks, which must be solved in order for any repairs to the tracks to be permanent, will be handled.

"I regret that the city of Granite City must take a hard line in this matter. However, as the city engineer, and the person who is responsible for the day to day operations in these matters, I feel that ICG taking advantage of my good nature.

"I am tired of filing complaints, writing letters which fall on deaf ears, and being shuffled from person to person seeking someone who can resolve these problems. The items mentioned in this letter are only the tip of the iceberg and for the sake of brevity I have chosen not to pursue further the history of the Illinois Central Gulf Railroad's lack of concern for the citizens' problems of this community.

"The buck has to stop somewhere. In the city of Granite City, the Mayor and City Council expect it to stop at my office. I hope that at ICG, it stops at yours."

A $110 million rate increase requested by Illinois Bell Telephone Co. was rejected yesterday by the Illinois Commerce Commission, but the commission did give the company authority to begin a two-year experimental plan to charge those who frequently use local directory assistance to obtain telephone numbers.

Residential customers will be allowed eight free calls to directory assistance each month, after which a charge of 20 cents per call will be assessed. There will be no charge for information calls to outside area codes.

Two levee rights-of-way intersect the Illinois Power Co. tract, those of the Chouteau, Nameoki and Venice Drainage and Levee District and the Metro-East Sanitary District, successor to the East Side Levee and Sanitary District.

Sanitary sewer service is being made available along Route Three in the vicinity of Chain of Rocks Road and Interstate 270 as part of the Nameoki Chouteau Venice townships sewer installation program that moved into the construction stage this year.

recalled occasional hitting success that sometimes made him a target of enemy pitchers—a situation that hard-throwing Gibson kept under control with fear of his own 90-miles-an-hour deliveries to batters' rib areas.

Maxvill said the 1979 Cardinals could contend for the pennant, and attributed the 1978 team's fifth-place finish to simultaneous "bad years" for nearly all the players.

1966 St. Louis squad attained championship heights in the next two years by adding aging outfielder Roger Maris, timely hitter Orlando Cepeda and relief ace Joe Horner, with whom Maxvill is associated in the Cardinal Travel Co.

Federal agency cites GC Steel for dust in air

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) on Tuesday issued a notice to Granite City Steel alleging that its basic oxygen furnace division is in violation of federal and state air pollution regulations.

The notice says monitors indicated more than 631 tons of particulate matter enter the air from the BOF facility per year, nearly 2 1/2 times the 255 tons allowed under the Clean Air Act of 1970, amended in 1977.

The company is being asked to meet with U.S. EPA officials and discuss the problems and what is being done to resolve them. The notice also gives the company 30 days to meet requirements or the EPA could attempt to force compliance through a civil or criminal suit, according to John Rapsys of the EPA's public affairs office in Chicago.

If there are violations after the 30-day period, there could be fines up to $25,000 per day as long as violations exist, it was asserted.

The EPA also alleged this week that the company's coke oven batteries are in violation of the airborne particulate matter regulations.

Granite City Steel officials are delaying formal comment until after receipt and study of the notice.

Donald Cairns, vice-president of the division, noted that the state EPA and Illinois Pollution Control Board have a detailed agreement with Granite City Steel under which multi-million-dollar air control improvements are being installed. Some monitoring stations may be recording dust from vehicles, trains and construction as well as from industries, he added.

Delay plan cost action on overpass

Further discussion of an agreement between Granite City and the M.W. Architects & Engineers concerning cost of new design plans for the proposed downtown overpass did not materialize during the regular council session Tuesday night.

M.W. serving as engineers on three major city construction projects, meanwhile is continuing the preparation of new design plans for a two-lane overpass, reducing the project from original plans for a four-lane span.

The council a week ago authorized M.W. to proceed with the two-lane planning, with additional cost to be negotiated at a later meeting. Aaron Pierson, vice-president of the engineering firm, has estimated cost of the new plan work at $170,000.

Close study of partners' tax returns

The federal tax returns of partnerships, particularly those showing losses exceeding $25,000, are coming under closer scrutiny, the Internal Revenue Service said this week.

The tax collection agency said that, beginning with partnership returns filed during fiscal 1978 (Oct. 1, 1977 - Sept. 30, 1978), it has doubled its efforts to determine the tax potential of these kinds of returns.

Included in this category is income from any partnership, syndicate, group, pool or any other venture which is not a trust, estate or corporation for federal income tax purposes. The IRS said that, in the past, partnership returns have not been subject to detect questionable tax shelters. Approximately 30 percent of returns showing losses exceeding $25,000 will be examined.

Convention is reviewed

In a brief meeting Monday night, the Chouteau Town Board of Trustees approved routine bills, including reimbursements from trustees who attended last week's township officials convention in Peoria.

The convention was discussed, including possible local applications of some of the ideas and suggestions presented during the Peoria event.

"Any Sunday" to be screened

"On Any Sunday," Bruce Brown's ("The Endless Summer") film on the exploits of top-ranking motorcycleists, including Steve McQueen, makes its local television premiere at 10:30 p.m. Friday, Dec. 1, and 10:30 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 3, on Channel 9.

An Oscar-nominated film for best documentary, it follows the exploits of motorcycleists, including Steve McQueen, who competes in races or just have fun, tracing patterns with their wheels on the beach.

The events depicted in On Any Sunday range from drag racing to the spike-bearing tires used for ice-racing in Canada, and from the intricacies of the six-day trials at El Escorial, Spain, to the 1,500 men lined up in the streets of Elsinore, Calif., for the annual race.

From moto-cross races to the Giant Mojave desert race, where a 17-block-long line of men on cycles waits for the starting gun. There is also a competition of cyclists as to who can get to the highest point on a mountain before his bike starts to inevitably roll downward.

In his review of On Any Sunday, Leonard Harris of CBS-TV said, "I could sit and watch it all day." Newsweek called the film "brave, appealing and often breathtaking." The New York Times said the movie is "clearly envisioned, simply told, and beautifully made."

Manpower rules questioned

Questions over new manpower rules under the Comprehensive Employment Training Act (CETA) were raised by Alderman John Ervin at the Tuesday night Venice City Council meeting.

Ervin said he had heard some of the employees would be losing their jobs after 18 months and asked Mayor William Ebersold to call a special meeting of the council with Dan Charovich, head of the Madison County Manpower programs for clarification.

The council also approved payment of $12,710 to the Illinois Gulf railroad for work done at the crossing behind the McKinley Bridge office to make an emergency route to Main Street.

Rev. Enright dies

REV. JOSEPH ENRIGHT
Dead at age 78

The Rev. Joseph A. Enright, 78, former pastor of Sacred Heart Catholic Church, died at 7:40 a.m. Tuesday at the Little Sisters of the Poor Nursing Home in St. Louis, following a one-year illness.

Father Enright retired from Sacred Heart Church Sept. 1, 1974, and was honored at that church school in January 1976 when he celebrated his 50th year in the priesthood.

Special guest at the 50th anniversary mass and reception was Bishop Joseph A. McNicholas, bishop of Springfield.

Father Enright was born in Chicago on April 27, 1900. After attending Quigley Seminary there, he was ordained in Washington, D.C., on Dec. 19, 1925, by Bishop Thomas Shaheen.

He attended Catholic University in Washington, D.C., from that time until appointed on June 6, 1928, as the first assistant pastor of Blessed Sacrament Church, Springfield.

His name appears on the cornerstone of that church.

Subsequently, he was appointed chaplain of St. Joseph's Home, Springfield, on Sept. 13, 1930, and was named superintendent of the Catholic Children's Home, Alton, during the period 1932 to 1947.

Appointments as chaplain, St. Joseph's Hospital, Highland; pastor of St. James Church, St. Jacob; and pastor of St. Mary's in Brussels, Ill., followed.

On May 26, 1964, Bishop William A. O'Connor appointed Father Enright pastor of Sacred Heart Church after the death of its founder and Father Enright's friend, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Michael Costello. At that time, Sacred Heart was the third largest church in the Springfield Diocese.

He died there in the chapel on Dec. 11, 1975.

He was a member of the Knights of Columbus.

His parents, William and Ann Marie Enright, and a brother, Harold F. Enright, preceded him in death. Surviving are two sisters, Miss Mary Elizabeth "Bessie" Enright and Mrs. Arnold (Marie) Mester, both of Chicago, four nieces and nephews and 13 great-nieces and great-nephews.

Visitation will be at the church after 4 p.m. tomorrow and a Requiem Mass is set for 10 a.m. Friday. The remains then will be taken to Chicago for another Mass and for burial. Details may be found in today's obituary column.

Tractor-trailer overturns

Two men were injured when their tractor-trailer overturned on the exit ramp from Interstate 270 to southbound Route 111 at 5:25 p.m. Monday.

Dan Busick, 21, Lucas, Iowa, the driver, said he was leaving the interstate when the load in his trailer shifted, causing the truck to overturn. The next thing he recalled, he was in a Granite City ambulance enroute to St. Elizabeth Hospital.

A passenger in the truck, Glen Harshman, 30, Sterling, Ill., was thrown across the cab and also was taken to the hospital. Busick suffered a cut to his head and injuries to his left foot, left shoulder and neck. Harshman suffered cuts to his head and left ear. Both were admitted.

'Rather do it ourselves,' school boards say of competency testing

Illinois school boards are looking for ways to ensure the competency of their high school graduates — but they are adamantly opposed to state or federal controls over their testing programs.

Meeting in Chicago during the weekend, 650 delegates to the annual meeting of the Illinois Association of School Boards (IASB) approved a resolution opposing "state or federal legislation which requires minimum competency testing in the public schools," and asking the state to help local school districts develop their own testing programs.

"I think school boards recognize that giving more tests won't solve the problem of students graduating without minimum knowledge and skills, especially tests written in Springfield or Washington, D.C.," said Harold P. Seamon, IASB executive director.

"School boards want a chance — and they want the resources — to develop tests that diagnose weaknesses and lead to improvements in teaching and learning."

"Boards are saying they don't need more federal and state obligations consuming their time, talent and money — they need a lot less."

The annual IASB business meeting was part of a three-day conference dealing with a wide variety of problems and issues confronting local school boards and administrators. The meeting wound up Monday with an address by Congressman Paul Simon.

In other action, school board delegates voted to:

1. Urge IASB member school boards to ban student smoking on school property.

2. Oppose national competition among high school athletic teams.

3. Oppose special state funding of school desegregation costs.

4. Support legislation requiring a child to be five years of age by Dec. 1 in order to enroll in kindergarten.

5. Support removal of school districts from under the state's prevailing wage laws.

6. Urge the state legislature to tighten up eligibility requirements and benefits under the unemployment compensation system.

Resolutions voted on at the annual meeting were submitted by individual school boards. Each of the association's member school boards is entitled to one voting delegate.

"Many of the resolutions voted on this year reflect the fact that school boards feel burdened by costly state and federal requirements," Seamon said.

"School boards are saying: quit imposing the requirements or give us the money to pay for them."

Canadian people warm, weather 27 below zero

The Male Delivery, Barbershop Quartet returned this week from Brandon, Manitoba, Canada, where the area singers were guest artists at a concert sponsored by the Brandon Chapter of the International Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing.

Rich Pilch of Granite City, a member of the Male Delivery Quartet, still was wearing his fleece-lined parka Monday when visiting the Press-Record office.

He noted the temperature in Brandon was 27 degrees below zero (0) at 8:30 a.m. Saturday.

"It certainly feels strange to leave St. Louis with the temperature around 50 degrees, arrive in Brandon at zero degrees and wake up the next morning to find it's between 25 and 30 degrees below zero," Pilch said.

This is the first time the Male Delivery Quartet has appeared outside the United States.

"They gave us a fine reception and are a wonderfully warm people, the Granite City man commented about the trip and their Canadian hosts. He added the group probably will be invited to return to Canada within the next few months for a repeat performance.

Brandon will be the site of the Jeux Canada Games, the pre-Olympic contests, in February 1979.

"Everyone in town appears to be very busy preparing for the event," Pilch said. Other members of the quartet are Al Mueller, Okawville, tenor, Lyle Wilson, Waterloo, lead, and Bob Cearnal, Mascoutah, bass. Pilch sings baritone.

State rejects pleas for traffic lights, overpass

While interested in street intersection improvements in this area, the Illinois Department of Transportation does not consider any of the Nameoki Township intersections worthy of additional action at this time according to a letter sent recently to Harold Davis, supervisor of Nameoki Township.

In the letter, Edward L. Ellicott, district traffic engineer for the IDOT, reviews four specific intersections where Davis suggested improvements be needed.

The first discussed by Ellicott is Route 203 at Harrison Street, the entrance to Eagle Park Acres. He contends monitoring of the intersection for seven years has been unable to show sufficient need for traffic control signals.

"We have not, however, been able to comply with their request for a traffic signal because traffic volumes and accident experience does not reflect the minimum conditions as required," Ellicott explained.

"It is recognized that signals themselves are a source of accidents and delays, and unless conditions are such that, based on past experience, signals are likely to improve the overall situation, they should not be installed."

"With 15,000 or more vehicles per day using Route 203, there is every reason to believe, based on our past experience, that there would be a great many more accidents, particularly of the rear-end type, if signals were installed," he added.

The second problem pointed out by Davis and answered by Ellicott is the need for an overpass or underpass on Route 162 at the Alton & Southern Railroad tracks, just east of Maryville Road.

Ellicott responds simply, "As traffic increases throughout the state, it is inevitable that highway-railroad crossings will need to be re-evaluated and it is also inevitable that some of the existing crossings will be modernized, reconstructed, eliminated or grade separated."

Discussing occasional malfunctions of the crossing lights, he says, "The crossing in question has recently been modernized and must be considered to be adequately protected with the existing lights."

The third area where improvements were suggested by Davis is the intersection of Routes 111 and 162, which need traffic lights, the supervisor feels. Ellicott agrees, but responds, "We are sure you appreciate that there are heavy demands currently being placed on available Highway Funds."

"It is the intention to improve this intersection as soon as favorable funding becomes available."

The final intersection discussed by Ellicott is Morrison Road and Maryville Road, where larger stop signs were recently installed. The IDOT official explains, "As you are aware, the department recently conducted a study at this location which was directed towards establishing when the erection of stop sign beacons on both stop signs on Morrison Road was justified."

"In this regard, we would like to acquaint you with the normal use for which this type of installation is used. Stop sign beacons may be used at intersections where the geometrics or other physical conditions severely restrict the sight distance to the stop sign, where an engineering investigation indicates there is a high degree of stop sign violation."

"In addition, at intersections where accident records show repeated rear-end and right-angle collisions, involving a stop sign violation, the stop sign beacon may be used. However, right-angle collisions in which the vehicle stops at the intersection but fails to yield the right-of-way would not be considered proper justification for stop sign beacon use."

"The investigation recently completed indicates that drivers on Morrison Road are not guilty of any of the above negligent behaviors, but are completing the required stop and are then driving oncoming cross traffic on Maryville Road - failure to yield the right-of-way."

"In view of the accident patterns recorded, the department placed stop bars on Morrison Road at the proper location and had the existing stop signs on Morrison Road upgraded to 36 inch signs. In addition, cross-traffic does not stop signs were added to the 36 inch stop signs and cross-road signs were erected on both Maryville Road approaches to this intersection."

time to have this intersection monitored, and if changing conditions should justify, additional steps will be taken at that time to apply other corrective measures as required," he concluded.

Santa to write at North Pole

For the 24th year, volunteers of Detachment 2, 11 Weather Squadron, Eielson Air Force Base, Alaska, will conduct their Santa's Mailbag program to send letters from Santa Claus to children throughout the world. People who would like a child to receive a letter postmarked from the North Pole are to write the letter they want the child to receive from Santa. Then the letter can be mailed with a stamped envelope addressed to the youngster to:

Det. 2, 11 Weather Sq.
Santa's Mailbag
Eielson AFB, Alaska 99702
Volunteers from the detachment will personalize the letter with Christmas illustrations and mail it back to the child from the nearby North Pole.

Throughout the years, the program has returned approximately 165,000 letters.

Public service plan explained

The "Exploring St. Louis" program this week focused on the work of the Core Foundation and Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville's participation in its program.

Guest speakers were Dee Joyce, executive director of the Midwest Center of the Core Foundation, Donald West, director of training for the center, and Michael Quinn, director of the Urban Studies Program at SIUE. James Haas, professor of historical studies at SIUE, was moderator.

The Core Foundation currently operates centers in three cities in the United States — San Francisco, Los Angeles and St. Louis. These centers provide training in public service for selected groups of young adults through first-hand experience in the field.

The Urban Studies Program at SIUE has developed a program of cooperation with the Foundation whereby Core Fellows are able to receive considerable credit toward a master of science degree in urban studies at the local university while simultaneously involved in the Core program.

The requirements for membership include: Legal CB operations under a valid FCC license or pending application, a CB base station and home telephone for monitoring purposes, and a sincere interest in serving the public good.

The local team cooperates with all law enforcement agencies and disaster preparedness groups and is affiliated with REACT International, a non-profit public service organization. Those who are interested in membership or additional information, may contact Downing at 618-288-9362.

Nationally there are over 100,000 persons participating as volunteers to provide highway safety and emergency communication using their own citizen band (CB) radios.

REACT has logged over 25 million volunteer manhours so far this year.

The organization members are credited with helping to save many lives annually, through greater speed with which medical aid reaches an accident scene and provide better communications in times of natural emergency disaster.

CB radio usage has grown from 6 million sets in use in January 1975, to more than 30 million currently.

The Free Spirits REACT team currently has 40 members.

New members are being sought but chairman Downing emphasized that only those with dedication to help others and keep the high standards of REACT should apply for membership.

Change in veterans' pensions due in '79

A new Veterans Administration pension program takes effect on Jan. 1, offering substantial increases to needy veterans and a choice of remaining under the old program for those who are better off financially.

VA Chief Max Cleland said that "while the new program basically provides the greatest benefits for those most in need, all VA pensioners should take a careful look at all facets of the program before making up their minds."

In setting up the revised pension plan, Congress provided that veterans have until Oct. 1, 1979, to choose whether they want it or prefer to remain under the current program.

If they choose the new program, payments will be retroactive to Jan. 1, 1979, but the choice is irrevocable," Cleland said.

VA pensions are based on income and go to eligible wartime veterans with other than dishonorable discharges who are permanently and totally disabled from causes not traceable to their service, he added.

VA considers veterans 65 years of age and older to be disabled for pension purposes.

VA pensions are also paid to certain needy survivors of wartime veterans. Currently, about 2.7 million Americans are receiving VA pensions.

Under the new pension program next year, the maximum annual pension rate for a single veteran will be $3,550, up from the current $2,894, Cleland said.

A veteran with one dependent and no other income now receives a maximum pension of $2,544, that will increase to $4,651 under the new program, Cleland said.

Other annual pension rates under the new program will be: Veteran with no dependents, but in need of regular aid and attendance — $5,880.

Veteran with one dependent who is in need of regular aid and attendance — $6,781.

Veteran permanently housebound, without dependents — $4,540.

Veteran permanently housebound, with one dependent child — $5,441.

Surviving spouse without dependent children — $2,379.

Surviving spouse with one dependent child — $3,116.

Record turkey crop

Last-minute shoppers for a Thanksgiving turkey may find meat department supplies less plentiful than other years, although the U.S. Department of Agriculture says this year's turkey crop of 141 million birds is an all-time record.

Production is running about three percent ahead of last year and beats the 1976 record crop by about a million turkeys.

However, the record crop doesn't necessarily mean lower prices. How much higher the turkey prices are this year varies with who is quoting prices.

News reports indicate average prices at 10 to 15 cents a pound above a year ago. A check of most markets shows some price increases less and some more than 10 cents a pound over last year.

Market news reports suggest turkey growers will make more money this year in spite of more turkeys and inflationary increases in production costs. Turkey prices are tied to red meat prices when consumers try to stretch the family food budget to keep meat on the table.

Beef pork and lamb prices have held strong throughout the year as livestock producers continued to avoid substantial herd-size increases lest they lose money on the operation. Consequently, many consumers have been turning to poultry, including turkeys, to maintain their meat consumption.

This year-long poultry buying has prevented a fall glut of turkeys on the market. It is noticeable in fewer birds going into cold storage during the summer to meet the usual burgeoning holiday demand for turkeys.

The midyear report in July showed cold storage stocks of turkeys at 35 million pounds less than a year earlier. The 35 million pounds of frozen turkeys on hand Oct. 1 for the fall-winter demand was 12 percent less than at the same time last year.

Fall trading in turkeys was light on strengthening prices as many retailers placed orders earlier than usual to meet their holiday needs.

Producers trends in recent years have been toward heavier breeds of turkeys which produce more meat per pound compared to bone than the light breeds favored for a time several years ago.

Improved feed formulations and breeding now enable growers to shorten the time needed to raise heavy breeds to full market weight. Heavy breed turkey production increased about seven percent this year while the number of light breed turkeys decreased nearly 45 percent.

Youth soccer title game on Channel 9

The Bush Gardens Soccer Club of St. Louis became the first U.S. team to win the UCT North American youth soccer championship when it beat the Edmonton Alberta Victoria Soccer Club 3 to 0 on Aug. 20, 1978. At 12:30 p.m. Friday, Nov. 24, Channel 9 will telecast the entire game.

Eight teams, with players aged 16 years and under, competed in the third annual UCT tournament played in Regina, Saskatchewan. The road to the tour began with 5,000 teams competing at local, state-provincial and regional levels.

Missouri won the opening round against the Pompano Soccer Club of Baltimore, Md., in overtime. The game was the most physical contest of the tournament, with several players suffering injuries. St. Louis goalie James Grimes was carried off the field with a head injury. He missed the second tournament game but returned for the international final.

St. Louis winger Michael Gaultin was the star of the first-round game when he scored all four Missouri goals in an exhausting 4 to 3 double overtime victory. Gaultin also scored the most goals of the tournament—a total of six.

'Career awareness days' at both GC high schools

"Career Awareness Days" at both Granite City high schools will take place Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 28 and Nov. 29, it was announced today.

The annual two-day program is being co-sponsored by the high school vocational counseling staffs and the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club.

Representatives from various career fields will be at the local high schools from 10 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. on both days to answer questions concerning specific career areas.

Students are invited to attend the sessions during lunch breaks on Tuesday, Nov. 28, at North High and Wednesday, Nov. 29, at South High School. The young people are encouraged to discuss qualifications needed in a variety of career areas and to receive practical information about job opportunities, salary expectations and the availability of continuing educational programs while working in some fields.

Between 25 and 30 representatives of different occupations are planning to attend the awareness days, according to Janet Davinroy, a teacher at Granite City High School North and Young Career Woman chairman for the local business women's club.

Some of the career areas and their representatives are:

Chemist — Willie Siem; dentist — Dr. Jack Miller; law enforcement — Officer Fred Hoffman; nurse — Gena For-

Recreation — Don Rains; trucking — Bob Maxey;

pharmacist — Darwin Siegel;

cosmetologists — Julie Ahning; lawyer — Tom Hildebrand; day care — Iness Gann; and journalist — Valerie Evenden.

Mrs. Davinroy is coordinating career days at North High School and Roy McConkey, vocational placement counselor, at South High.

Crime shows October drop

Sharp reductions in the number of auto thefts and auto burglaries resulted in a 17.6 percent overall reduction in the number of major crimes in Granite City during October, compared with those of the same month a year ago.

A report of crimes occurring in eight categories last month by Chief of Police Ronald Vezler listed a total of 205 offenses occurring, a reduction of 44 below 249 major crimes reported in October 1977.

Contributing to the decline were reductions in auto burglaries to a total of 31 last month from 69 in the same month a year ago, and in the number of auto thefts from 29 in October 1977 to seven last month.

Other major crimes reported last month included one homicide, up from none in the same month a year ago, one forcible rape case, up from none; two robbery cases, same as a year ago; 26 assault cases, up from 18; 46 burglaries, down from 58; and 89 larceny cases, up from 82.

The report shows police solved 63 current cases during October, up from 48, but also solved 103 other pending cases, up from 88, for a total of 166 cases solved last month, up from 136 solved during the same month a year ago.

A total of 353 traffic arrests was made during the month, up from 252 in October 1977. Police made a total of 134 other arrests during the month, up from 104. This resulted in a total of 487 arrests for all purposes last month, up from 356 in October 1977. Police filed 73 additional charges in October, up from 52 a year ago, making a total of 560 charges filed last month as compared with a total of 408 charges filed a year ago. The report listed one traffic fatality last month, up from none a year ago and bringing to two the total number of traffic deaths in the ten months of this year. Two traffic deaths also were recorded for the same ten-month period last year.

A total of 36 traffic accidents in which 63 persons were injured occurred during the month, along with 130 other accidents which involved property damage only.

In October 1977 there were 41 accidents resulting in injuries to 61 persons, with 134 accidents involving property damage only.

Suit after crash
Edward Poe, through his mother, Jeanette Duffy, has filed a four-count lawsuit in Madison County Circuit Court against Frederick D. Duffy and Leonard M. Peterson, the result of a Jan. 11, 1977, accident at J&E Avenue and Nameoki Road.

The suit alleges that Peterson was driving north on Nameoki Road and his van and Duffy's car collided. Poe, a passenger in Duffy's auto, alleges he was injured. He seeks an amount in excess of $15,000 from each plus $500 from each in a separate count of the suit.

Who wouldn't get steamed up about it

Boy! Is ROCK HUDSON steaming. He was in a steam bath with his manager when thieves stole two $2,500 watches, two pairs of expensive cuff links and $400 in cash from the dressing room.

Another actor who is hot under the collar is KRIS KRISTOFFERSON because someone started the rumor that he was quitting show business. Says the frustrated Kris, "I haven't even heard from my agent in six months. How the idea I'm quitting got started I'll never know. Maybe it was because I turned down a picture I thought was worthless following 'A Star Is Born.' Would you believe I even got a letter from BURT REYNOLDS with whom I made 'Semi-Tough.' Burt wrote 'I'm sorry you're quitting. But when we were working together I realized you were uncomfortable with the game. I just hope you keep in touch.' Just to keep the record straight, Kris yelps, "I'm not quitting acting. I love it."

Noose around home loans is not good noose

Q. What is happening to the home mortgage money market?
A. The market for home loan funds is getting tighter and more expensive. In many areas, 10 percent is now the prevailing rate of interest.
Q. The Federal Reserve Board is playing 'tight money roulette' with the nation's economy recovery. It was stated in a report from the National Association of Home Builders.
A. The present policy of high interest rates and tight money could bring home sales and new housing construction to a grinding halt within a matter of months, thus increasing the possibilities of another national recession in 1979.

Blue Book shows rising coin values

Publications are in the spotlight these days, highlighted by the 1979 edition of the "Handbook of United States Coins." Commonly referred to as Blue Book, because of its traditional blue hard cover, the 36th edition of the book indicates the premium prices dealers may be expected to pay to acquire coins for their stock.
In conjunction with the Red Book (officially "A Guide Book of United States Coins") the two books are considered the foremost tools for the coin collector.
The new 128-page Blue Book, with 128 pages, reflects a steady coin market. Most upward activity centers around the early rare dates in choice conditions. Almost all top grade coins are up in value.
Half Cents and Large Cents rose steadily in the early dates and the 1793 Large Cent took an exceptionally noticeable jump in price. The 1914D and 1922 without D Lincoln Cents also show significant upward increases.
The book features up-to-date wholesale valuations for all U.S. coins, hundreds of facts and expert advice on what to purchase when starting a collection.
It sells for $2.95 through most coin and bookstores or may be ordered direct from the publisher by writing to Department M, Western Publishing Co., Inc., 1220 Mound Ave., Racine, Wis. 53404. Include an additional dollar for postage and handling.
Coin Collecting," a new offering by Krause Publications, Inc., 700 E. State St., Iola, Wis. 54945, is a guide to the investment potential of coins and paper money.
The 156-page magazine sells for $1.95 and can be ordered from the publisher or picked up at newsstands and is a guide to the investment potential of coins and paper money.
Articles and commentaries in the new magazine tell the collector with an eye toward investment can seek out the more profitable avenues in the hobby.
There is advice and commentary on error coins, overdates, patterns, proof sets, and selected series in what amounts to something of a Wall Street investment letter for the hobby.
The next one is free. It's the latest edition of the "Paramount Journal" and features a variety of articles timely to the numismatist.
Among articles in the 32-page format are features on the chief mint engravers of the United States, the popularity of investing in gold coins during times of soaring gold prices and Paramount's donation for $25,000 to the U.S. Olympic Committee through its sale program of Russian rubles commemorating the 1980 Games.
Also included are articles on the coming Olympics, the historic Prince Charles gold and silver coins, the Tiffany glass mosaics of the Philadelphia Mint and book reviews.
It may be obtained by requesting a free complimentary copy from Paramount Journal, One Paramount Plaza, Englewood, Ohio 43222.

Waylon wailin' and monologue by old Fozzie

WAYLON—I've Always Been Crazy (RCA)
Country star's latest LP is a collection of more than 10 minutes of Buddy Holly hits. Excellent backup on this segment by The Crickets.
VANNELLI—Brother To Brother (A and M)
Gino—Is more calmer, more romantic on this one, especially with the sensual and lovely "I Just Wanna Stop." Most of the material was written by Gino who said he was striving for "good songs that would mean something, and I think we've succeeded."
THE MUPPET SHOW—A (Arista)
—This is the second delightful record album to be culled from the soundtrack of the ever-popular TV fantasy show. Fozzie Bear does a monologue, an animal sings Celine Dion, the Great Gonzo has a go at "Wishing Song," and there is an episode of "Pigs in Space."

Wines, children's party are topics of Women's Division

The Women's Division of the Tri-Cities area Chamber of Commerce held its first meeting of the 1978-79 year at the Bill Burns Cafeteria Thursday evening. Preceding the dinner, Mrs. Billie Schuler gave the "thought for the day."

Mrs. Ruth Brown introduced George Sanders, sales manager of Jul Fischer Distributors of Belleville, who introduced the speaker, Pat Roney, Illinois state manager of Browne Vintners Co. of Peoria.

Roney demonstrated three wines: Nierstein, a light, white (Rhine wine) (sweetest of German wines); Pontet-Lafour, a Bordeaux white wine (dry white wine of France); and Beaujolais Saint-Louis, a burgundy wine (dry red wine of France).

He discussed what to look for and how to judge a wine, grapes used in making the wine, the shapes of bottles used in packaging wines, the proper serving of wines, and use of wine in punch. The wines were from B & G Imports, shippers and bottlers. Several pamphlets on wines were distributed to those present.

Assisting Roney was Mike Vaughan, a salesman for Jul Fischer. Vaughan recognized Mrs. Mary Lee Mateosian for her "Good Samaritan" act in administering mouth-to-mouth resuscitation to Mr. John Alessandrelli which enabled him to live another day and have additional contact with his family.

Mrs. Alessandrelli was the brother of Mike Alessandrelli, warehouse manager for Jul Fischer Distributor, Inc. Gifts of wine were presented to Mesdames Ruth Brown, Barbara Duffin, Mary Sedekum, Lois Winter, Bess Weiss, Mary Lee Mateosian and Mary Darnier.

The Women's Division board will meet Thursday, Nov. 30 at 5:30 p.m. at the Chamber office. Following the program, a business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Winter.

Mrs. Duffin reported on the sales and revenue for the year in the planning states for the fall of 1978, and Mrs. Schuler said the division's yearly Christmas party for children is to be held Saturday, Dec. 16, at the Madison Recreation Center.

It was announced that a dinner-dance is to be held Saturday, April 21, 1979, at Sunset Hills Country Club.

Others attending the meeting were Mesdames Jackie Abrams, Nita Cline, Shirley Cunningham, Vivian Gilchoff, Mary Jesses, Jo Meyer, Beverly Partney, Tina Thomas, Bonnie Sullivan, Chamber of Commerce members and guests.

The Women's Division board will meet Thursday, Nov. 30 at 5:30 p.m. at the Chamber office.

Regent reviews DAR procedures

The Drusilla Andrews Chapter of the DAR held its November meeting during the weekend in the Niedringhaus United Methodist Church parlor with 12 members present.

The regent, Mrs. Emma Schoen, led the opening ceremonies.

Mrs. Ruth McCarty, vice regent, formally introduced and welcomed Mrs. Rita Grant as a new member.

Delegates to the spring state convention and national convention were elected. Mrs. Schoen will be the principal delegate to both conventions with alternates to the state being Mrs. McCarty and Miss Ella Ray Smith and to the national, Mrs. Janet Wilson and Mrs. Lucille Butler.

Revised by-laws for the chapter were presented by Mrs. Butler and adopted by the group.

Yearly contributions to DAR projects, covering everything from scholarships to genealogical record binding, were approved.

Schools and colleges receiving partial or full support from the DAR also collected donations — the Kate Duncan Smith school in Alabama; the Tennessee school in South Carolina; Bacon College in Oklahoma; and St. Mary's School for Indian Girls in South Dakota.

The afternoon's program was presented by Mrs. Schoen and was entitled "Walking Your Papers Through DAR." She explained how applicants' papers completed on the local level proceed through about 12 stages at the national headquarters in Washington, where they are checked and approved, or disapproved for lack of proof of being a descendant of a Revolutionary War participant.

Mrs. Schoen informed members that sometimes ancestral lines are marked "hold" because errors have been discovered in previous papers. These errors must be corrected satisfactorily before anyone else can enter the organization on that line.

No one accepted as a member, however, is ever dismissed because of later information which might create an error in previous papers.

Some papers, Mrs. Schoen said, are marked "closed" and are not available to anyone seeking the information they contain. When a person who has closed her papers dies or resigns from the organization, those papers immediately become "open" and available to interested persons.

Members present in addition to the above mentioned were Misses Nelle Hart and Mary Candler and Mesdames Florence Simpson, Marge Hiler, Eva Meier and Barbara Williams.

Persons interested in learning more about membership in the DAR are invited to contact Mrs. Schoen at 801-3288 or Mrs. Butler at 797-0280.

The next meeting will be hosted by Dolores Byrnes.

HURTS BACK AND ARM Mrs. Virginia Arakaki, 56, of 2140 Miracle Ave., was treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital early this week after the auto she was driving was involved in an auto accident. She suffered cervical strain and injuries to her left shoulder and left arm. She was released after treatment.

Opti-Mrs. President Judy Dailey introduced the newcomer and also presented a guest, Mrs. Hazen Parrish.

Honorees for the luncheon were Mrs. Virginia John, Mrs. Ertha Johnson, Mrs. Catherine Michel and Mrs. Ann Little.

A short business session was conducted by Mrs. Dailey and the remainder of the time was spent at cards.

Those excellent and receiving awards were Mesdames Mildred Branding, Lane Aufderheide, Helen Wyman, Neil Jennings and Gladys Page.

A Christmas party will replace the next regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Pat Konzen, 3302 Princeton Drive.

St. John Lutheran Thanksgiving plans

Thanksgiving Day worship services will begin at 9 a.m. at St. John Lutheran Church, St. Clair and Dale avenues. At this service, members of the congregation will bring assembling foods and staples for Christmas baskets for the local needy families. A special Thanksgiving table will be set up in front of the sanctuary for this purpose and foods will be gathered until Christmas week.

Fifteen baskets or more will be prepared on Dec. 22nd for the relief of families in particular need in our area.

Organist for the Thanksgiving service will be Mrs. June Barton. The host pastor, the Rev. Samuel Boda, will deliver the Thanksgiving message.

The following Sunday will be Loyalty Sunday, which will be followed by World Hunger Sunday. A year-long drive for funds to relieve the world's hungry will begin.

The general public is invited to the special Thanksgiving service as well as to all other services. Rev. Boda added.

Mrs. Marshall Frey is shower honoree

Mrs. Marshall Frey, the former Miss Rhonda Tharp, was honored at a personal bridal shower given by Mrs. Ken Brodzinski and Miss Patty Bode in the latter's home.

Pink and burgundy bells and a bride doll provided the decorations for the gift table.

After games refreshments were served to Mesdames Ralph Tharp Sr., Robert Frey Jr., Robert Frey Sr., Robert Wayne, Dan Richardson, Ralph Bode, and to Sharon Nelson, Paula White, Ruth Valencia, Chris Kaczorek and Cheryl Gertsch.

Progressive dinner for Preceptor Beta Gamma

Preceptor Beta Gamma of Beta Sigma Phi entertained with a progressive dinner last week.

Members gathered for cocktails at 6 Patricia Lane, with hostess Martha Jean Dyer.

The salad course was served by Mrs. Jane Laule in her home, 3 Patricia Lane. Mrs. Arlene Haldeman served the entire at her home, 4008 Melrose Ave.

The dessert course, served at 1211 Iowa St., Madison, by Ruth Stoyanoff, was followed by a short business meeting.

President May Ebling was in charge and the minutes of the last meeting and treasurer's report were submitted.

Pat Tisaglaroff reported the sorority's City Council has requested a resume from Norma Rains, chapter representative at the Valentine dance.

Members decided to prepare a Christmas basket for a needy family whose children attend a local school, consisting of food, clothing, toys for the children and a gift for the parents.

The project will be in addition to the planned Christmas basket for the chapter's "adopted" senior citizen couple.

The cultural program on "Energy" was presented by Mrs. Pat Tisaglaroff and Dolores Dorch.

The next meeting will be hosted by Dolores Byrnes.

Higgins honored at benefit ball to aid the handicapped

The eighth annual benefit ball sponsored by the Granite City Society for Crippled Children was held at St. Mary's Parish Hall in Madison during the weekend, with all proceeds to be used for the benefit of crippled and handicapped children in this area.

Roger Higgins, honorary chairman, presided over the festivities, assisted by vice-president of the Society, Skip Christiansen, Director Ron Liebben, Treasurer Walter Christiansen, Walter Chaboud and Geoffrey Chaboud Jr. Society President Lily Chaboud welcomed the guests and presented a plaque to Higgins commemorating the occasion, citing his success in the industrial field as manager of the Nestle Co. in Granite City, largest instant tea producing plant in the world. He is a director of the Southern Illinois Industrial Association and the Southern District of the Illinois Manufacturers' Association.

Higgins was described as a member of the board of directors of the American Red Cross Tri-City Chapter and the Urban League, and a trustee of the East Alton Baptist Church. He is also a member of the executive board of the Boy Scouts of America, Cahokia Mound Council, East Alton Rotary Club and Citizens' Advisory Board of the East Alton School District and has coached Little League baseball for 22 years.

He is past president of his native Sunbury, Ohio Lions Club and for the third consecutive year is president of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Chaboud noted that Higgins "has a busy schedule but does not let himself become exiled from compassion and concern. On behalf of our Society and the children we have served, we want to express sincere appreciation for his interest and his consistent support of our program to aid crippled and handicapped children."

Guests were entertained with music furnished by the Rhythm Pipers and gifts were presented throughout the evening, provided by Shang's Warehouse of Liquor, Corral Liquor, Michel's Jewelry & Gift Shop, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pasloff, First Granite City National Bank, the Nestle Co., Inc., and Mercantile Trust Co.

School spelling bee on March 3

Plans for the third annual Granite City School District elementary spelling bee were discussed in a planning session held at Parkview School by the district spelling bee committee under the chairmanship of Mrs. Agnes Fryntzko, principal of Parkview.

The spelling bee will be held on Saturday, March 3, 1979, at Coolidge Junior High School. Purpose of the spelling bee is to encourage the improvement of spelling, as well as to try to make all students more aware of the importance of spelling. Format and rules for the spelling bee will remain the same as in the previous two years. Following this third spelling bee, there will be an evaluation of the format and the areas of participation.

The evaluation will be conducted by the spelling bee committee, whose members are: Owen B. Humphrey, curriculum coordinator; Merna Musterman, gifted consultant; Agnes Fryntzko, principal of Parkview; Arthur Menendez, principal of Mitchell School; Estelle Masnie, Freshard School; Linda McDonnell, Parkview School; and Mary Lou Schwab, Marshall School.

Seek comments on human services plan

The Illinois Department of Public Aid is inviting public comments on its 1979-80 fiscal year human services plan.

Public Aid Director Arthur Quern said comments will be accepted through Dec. 29. The tentative plan will be submitted to the Illinois General Assembly during November.

Phase I of the 1979 Human Services Plan contains program and fiscal data for fiscal years 1977, 1978 and 1979 in a format corresponding to budget categories described in Governor James Thompson's 1978-79 fiscal year state budget.

Phase II of the Human Services Plan contains an analysis of the Welfare Reform Demonstration Project—a pilot program in operation in Cook County and seven downstate counties.

The welfare reform project, conducted jointly by the Illinois Department of Public Aid and the Governor's Office of Manpower and Human Development, is funded by a CETA (Comprehensive Employment and Training Act) demonstration grant obtained through the Governor's Office of Manpower and Human Development.

The project utilizes specially-trained public aid staff members who screen all public aid applicants and clients in the project sites for employability. Potentially employable clients are assessed and referred to the most appropriate employment or training program.

The area of employment assistance, examined through the Welfare Reform Demonstration Project, has been identified by the governor as a top priority. The project addresses unemployment, a major state issue.

The public review and comment period on the Human Services Plan is conducted pursuant to Section 7 (a) of Public Law 79-105, Welfare and Rehabilitation Services Act. Public comments are welcomed, Quern said.

Comments received will be reviewed by a planning and program development unit. Any major changes brought about due to comments received will be described in an additional plan amendment.

Copies of Phase I and Phase II of the plan are available for review by contacting the Department of Public Aid either by telephone or in writing at the office listed below: Illinois Department of Public Aid, Planning and Program Development Section, 316 S. 2nd St., Springfield, Ill. 62762, (217) 785-0754.

NATIONAL MAGAZINE COVER from Aug. 24, 1929, designed by Lawrence Toney, a former Granite City resident, is a cherished possession of Fred A. Orr, 2430 Lynch Ave., who grew up with the Toney family. Orr has lost contact with the family and is hopeful he will be able to locate one of the survivors to find out what happened to Lawrence Toney, his brothers and his father.

Contact lost with former GC 'front cover artist'

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Staff Writer

Fred Orr also worked for the old Barber Asphalt plant in Madison as a time keeper and first-aid man. Required to live on the premises, because he was on call 24-hours-per-day for medical care, the elder Orr lived in a mosquito net in the plant property for years, his son recalled. He also worked for the railroad for a time, the son added.

The last contact Fred A. Orr had with the Toney family was in the 1940s, when he saw Marshall Toney in St. Louis and they talked.

"All I have heard since then is rumors. I heard Grandpa Toney died and Lawrence Toney had gone blind. Lawrence would probably be in his 70s now, if he is still alive."

"I would like to know what happened to him and his son and I think about them frequently. I even wrote Norman Rockwell just before his death, but got no reply," Orr said.

The magazine then sold for five cents an issue. Fred A. Orr, 2430 Lynch Ave., owner of that particular cover pointed out in displaying his possession, designed by a former friend.

Orr recalls when he resided in a home on the north side of Cleveland Boulevard in the 2100 block in the late 1920s, Toney designed several covers for the Saturday Evening Post and other magazines and his son, Tommy Toney, became a photographer and photographed advertisements for Pepto Bismol and other products.

Tommy also had several photographs in a national Boy Scout magazine, Orr recalled.

Orr, who said he can not recall specific years, remembered when Lawrence Toney's father, remembered to him only as "Grandpa Toney" and Lawrence's brother, Marshall, resided at 18th and State streets, over the present Michel Jewelry.

"I went back there the other day, just to see what memories would come back. I remembered they lived in the front room on the left, when you got to the top of the stairs. Of course, someone else lives there now and they probably thought I was crazy being up there for no reason," Orr recalled.

Orr recalled posing for Lawrence Toney once when the artist was preparing a Thanksgiving promotion. "To the best of my knowledge, it was never used. At least nothing ever came from it, but it was an honor," he said.

He also remembered members of the Toney family eating frequently at restaurants operated by his mother, Coda, including the diner in the building now occupied by the Illinois-American Water Company in the 1800 block of Delmar Avenue, and Coda's Cafe at 19th and Adams streets, and later at 1817 Nineteenth St., now part of Granite Chrysler-Plymouth.

He recalls "Grampa Toney" as wealthy and went to St. Louis once a week to watch the stock market transactions. Marshall worked in one of the city's steel processing plants.

Orr's family has been in Granite City since May 1921 when his father, Fred Orr Sr. came and established the first Western Union office here, in a location now utilized as a parking lot for Granite City Trust & Savings Bank.

Good planning will make Thanksgiving trip safe

For families looking forward to annual Thanksgiving trips, "know-how" are two basic elements recommended by Veizer and the International Association of Chiefs of Police. The preparedness guidelines include:

Plan a sensible schedule of driving with plenty of rest stops. Avoid heavy traffic periods. Have a dependable mechanic safety check your car and correct any deficiencies — the heater-defroster system, antifreeze, brakes, tires, lights, windshield wipers and washers. Make sure your trunk contains such safety gear as tire chains, booster cables, a tow chain or strap, emergency warning devices, a bucket of sand and a shovel, and auxiliary lighting equipment.

In addition, Chief Veizer emphasized that many Thanksgiving trips take motorists into areas hit by early winter storms which come on unexpectedly.

For advance warnings, the chief recommended that motorists keep alert for National Weather Service bulletins and be ready to abandon any part of their trip in case dangerous warnings are issued.

"With this kind of know-how," Veizer concluded, "the way to grandmother's house and back should add up to a safe, enjoyable trip."

Immunization and physical policy adopted by board

The Madison Board of Education at its Thursday evening meeting adopted a policy requiring all students to have a physical examination and to complete an immunization program.

Mrs. Nina Dittman, school nurse for Madison, reported on preparations that she has started to insure the school district is in compliance with state laws.

She informed the board that the Illinois State Health Department will furnish the vaccine and the local district will receive help from Dr. George T. Wilkins in the form of the necessary syringes.

Parents' permission is required and a consent form will need to be signed for each immunization.

It was noted that under Article 10, Section 22, of the Illinois School Code, students could face expulsion from school if the parents failed to comply with the immunization laws.

Mrs. Dittman said that the Mothers Club and other volunteers have offered to help her with the program.

Permission was given the Madison High School junior class to sell family portrait coupons to earn money for the Junior-Senior prom.

The MHS students also received board permission to run a collection stand during the basketball games and hold the prom on Saturday, May 19, at either Sheraton or Breckenridge in St. Louis.

The board authorized school children to collect canned goods for the Salvation Army to be used in Christmas baskets for the needy.

It was reported that repair work on Dunbar school where bricks on the wall were loose has been delayed. It was reported that there is difficulty obtaining bricklayers, even though the board awarded the repair work contract in August.

"We are very happy with American Education Week so far," Mrs. Marguerite Connole, assistant curriculum director, said. "Although there is still another day to go, we have had over 600 visitors. The rooms have been very attractive and I think the students have done really a superior job."

"We have started talking about what we will be doing in our schools next year. I feel the students were enthused this year, and next year we will have even a finer presentation of the many fine things happening in the Madison school district," Mrs. Connole said.

Superintendent John Palchey said, "On behalf of the board, I sent a telegram to Bobby Joe Davis congratulating the Granite City South Soccer team and the school. Winning a state championship three years in a row is really an accomplishment and makes the entire area very proud."

MAXIE ADDRESSES THE PARK DISTRICT BANQUET MONDAY

South spikers down North

GRANITE CITY — Granite City South and North got together last night at South Gym for the annual battle between the two schools for volleyball supremacy in Granite City. When it was all over, South was wearing the city crown.

The Warriors won the city volleyball championship by relatively wide margins of 20 and 20-12 over their cross-town rivals.

"I didn't really know whether or not we'd win so big or not," said South Coach Wilma Schulze. "I thought going into it that we should, but in a North-South match, anything can happen."

North jumped out to early leads in the contest in both games, only to see it evaporate. "We just had a bad night," said a disheartened North Coach Sharon Bloodworth. "That's the kind of sport volleyball is, you can have a bad night no matter how good you are."

Schulze said the team work on her squad was a great help in gaining the win. "Volleyball's such a team-oriented sport," she said. "After all, three girls have to be involved in getting the ball back over the net."

"All six girls out there have to work hard and work together in order to have a good team."

Bloodworth said she felt that area newspapers may have given her squad a hurdle to be overcome. "I don't think our school has been getting as much press coverage in any of the area papers," she said. "Not as much as South anyway. I think it may have had an effect on the girls ... even though it shouldn't have."

With the victory, South raised its won-lost record to 11-6. Both schools will be entered in the East St. Louis Senior IHSA District Tournament, which begins next Thursday, Nov. 30. East St. Louis Lincoln has been seeded first, East St. Louis Senior is second, North was seeded third and South fourth.

In the first round, Lincoln will face South and East St. Louis Senior battles North. All matches will be held in the East St. Louis Senior High Gymnasium.

remember that his batting average was never far from the .200 mark.

Every year, almost without exception, someone will ask Maxie what his lifetime batting average was. Maxvill will mumble the reply, ".214," because he knows the routine. Later in the evening somebody will ask Maxvill to recount the story of his one and only grand-slam home run. This is his cue to rush to the podium and in a voice full of false bravado explain how he hit the ball as hard as it is possible to hit a ball. The story lasts for a few seconds then he explains with characteristic modesty how there was a gale blowing to right field and how he merely hit a fly ball that blew over the fence.

He is always given his chance to recall the past glory, because he is among friends. "About half these kids who come up have messages from parents to relay," said Maxvill. "I still remember most of them."

Maxvill also remembers when he was a kid playing baseball in Granite City. "They didn't have the program they have now. It was the Police League then," he said.

Dr. Leo Coleman who guided the little league in Granite City when Maxvill was beginning his playing experience, was a positive influence for the young Maxvill and many others who participated in the program in the early fifties. "He put in a lot of time and work, which is

SUE hopes to knock off top-ranked Hoosiers

By AL BARNES
for the Press-Record
EDWARDSVILLE — The Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville soccer team will travel to Bloomington, Ind., Sunday (Nov. 26) to play the Indiana University Hoosiers for the right to represent the Midwest region in the national NCAA Division I (big schools) tournament at Tampa, Fla., Dec. 9-10.

The game will be of particular interest to Granite City South and North.

City soccer fans, Hoosier freshman Mark Goldschmidt is a 1978 graduate of GCHS South and helped lead the soccer Warriors to state championships in 1976 and 1977. He has seen considerable action this season for IU and has scored one goal.

Coach Bob Guelker's Cougar kids gained their shot at another national championship (they won the Division II crown in 1972 and finished third in Division I play last year) Sunday afternoon on a wet and slippery astroturf surface at Lindenwood College in St. Charles, Mo., by defeating St. Louis U, 3-2, in triple overtime.

It was sweet revenge for the Cougars who had been toppled by the Hoosiers, 1-0, the week before in the annual Bronze Boot Classic at Busch Stadium. The loss to St. Louis, incidentally, had stopped the Cougars' 10-game winning streak.

The match at Bloomington against Indiana is bound to be a bitterly-fought game: last year, in the first-round match of the NCAA Midwest regional, the two teams fought to a 3-2 SUIC decision in four overtimes at Cougar Field.

The Hoosiers, who have been ranked No. 1 all this season, felt then and still do, that the '78 game should have been played on the artificial surface at their Memorial Stadium. However, the Cougars won't be strangers to the field at Hoosierland, having played and lost to Indiana in the Midwest NCAA Finals, 1-0, in 1976, and this season wallowing national defending champion Hartwick College, 1-0, losing 3-1 to Penn State on the same field in the Big Red Soccer Classic in September.

Over the years, the Cougars enjoy a 3-1 advantage over the Hoosiers, plus posting a 1-0 decision over them in an exhibition game kicking off the '77 campaign.

Indiana advanced to its showdown with SUIC by defeating Cleveland State, Sunday, 3-1, thus avenging the Hoosiers' only loss of the recent 20-1-0 season. Indiana's Angelo DiBernardo, who has

Trojans open at home tonight

MADISON — The Madison basketball Trojans will begin their 1978-79 season here tonight when they host powerful St. Paul-Highland at approximately 8 p.m. (Junior varsity at 6:30 p.m.).

The Trojans are coming off a successful season of a year ago which saw them advance to the IHSA Class A (small school) sectional semifinals. Vandalia, only to lose to arch-rival Lebanon.

St. Paul was also eliminated from state playoff play by Lebanon last season.

The Vikings and Trojans didn't play last year ... and then again they did. That's a story in itself.

The schedule last season showed a game to take place between the two schools at Keil Auditorium as a preliminary game to a St. Louis University basketball contest. But after one quarter of play (with St. Paul leading 10-8), the clock at Keil began to malfunction and the game was forced to be terminated. Later in the season, neither school agreed on a date, time, place or whether or not to start a re-match from the point of termination, so the game was scratched off the schedules.

Just in case something happens tonight like that, Madison will travel to St. Paul for a second game on Feb. 17.

work or advice very seriously, but it's very important to have something to fall back on if your athletic ambitions fall through. Right now you're laying the groundwork for the future," the young broadcaster told the crowd.

They were abundant words... at Park Banquet

GRANITE CITY — The Granite City Park District held its 18th annual sports banquet Monday night featuring guest speakers Ted Simmons, Dal Maxvill, Kevin Slaten and Joe Hoerner.

The banquet honored champions in park baseball, football, basketball, flag football and tennis programs. About 50 leagues and divisions were represented by about 132 teams and individuals.

After dinner, served in South High School's cafeteria, the athletes heard short speeches by the guest celebrities.

The two main speakers, Simmons and Slaten, emphasized the importance of education to young athletes. Simmons said, "Somewhere along the line I got some very good advice, get an education. It is the most important thing an athlete can apply himself to other than athletics."

Slaten, a sportscaster for KMOX television, echoed Simmons' comments. "Kids sometimes don't take school presented to McDonald's Restaurant for their continuing sponsorship of park teams. This is the 19th year for the award. Park commissioner George Sykes received an award for his work and long-standing contributions to soccer in the area. Previously in the evening Sykes, in an apparent jibe at the controversy surrounding the wave-tect swimming pool, had offered an unused surf board for sale. When he received the award he jokingly withdrew his offer.

Other speakers at the banquet were: Mayor Paul Schuler; Park Commissioners, Jeff Worthen and Bob Patrick; and Director of Parks and Recreation Harold Brown.

Sugar and spikes... and the city crown

GRANITE CITY — It was a surprisingly fast volleyball match here last night, Granite City North and South went at it at South for the city crown in volleyball, and South came out on top in two straight games, 20-6 and 20-12.

It might not have been indicative of the overall strength of North, however. The Steelers came into the match with a fine record and momentum. But North Coach Sharon Bloodworth said her team just had an off-night.

South, however wasn't off by any means. The Warriorettes came from early deficits and walked away with the crown. Team work and perhaps a small home-court advantage helped pave the way.

Deterding and Warriors hope 'future is now'

By PETE HAYES
Sports Editor of the Press-Record
GRANITE CITY — The scene was the Collinsville High School Gym. The event was the first round of the IHSA Class AA (large school) Regional. The two teams which had just finished playing were East St. Louis Senior. Mighty. Quick. Powerful. Fantastic shooters. And Granite City South. Short. Not-as-quick. Supposedly a pushover for East St. Louis' mighty Flyers.

The final score? 101-57! 120-80? Nope. 19-12. That's right, 19-12.

South coach Don Deterding was in the middle of explaining that it was the only way his team could come close to Eastside...hold the ball on them. Then a well-wisher came up and said, "You're gonna have many good years to come, coach." The future could be now for Deterding and his GCHS South Warriors. Having lost just two of their starters from last season (center Terry Angle and guard Tom Henrich), the Warriors are hoping that momentum gained in coming so close to such a powerful team will guide them to great things this season.

"I'd say our greatest assets this season will be the desire to play defense and a super passing game," said Deterding. "Our passing isn't flashy, but we do have the ability to spot an open man...and that's what's needed in a running game."

A running game. That's what Deterding and his squad will play this season. "We've looked great on the fast-break in practice," he said. "Of course, practice and actual game situations are something totally different." South may have to run in order to be effective. The tallest man on the squad is 6-5 junior center Bill Skinner, who Deterding said will be a possible spot-starter, but will see some action. "Bill's offense has improved tremendously over the summer," said Deterding. "He still needs a little work on his defensive game, but that'll come with time."

The defense was something that South took great pride in last season, and rightfully so. But Deterding said he feels this year's defensive unit will be even stronger. "Believe it or not, I think we'll be much better defensively than last season," he said. "We've gotten just a little bit quicker, and the guys have played basketball with each other for an added year from last campaign."

The starting lineup for the Warriors will probably go something like this: Jeff Vaughn and Jeff Parker at guard, Jeff Treter, Lee Huebner and Jim Blasingame at the forward spots.

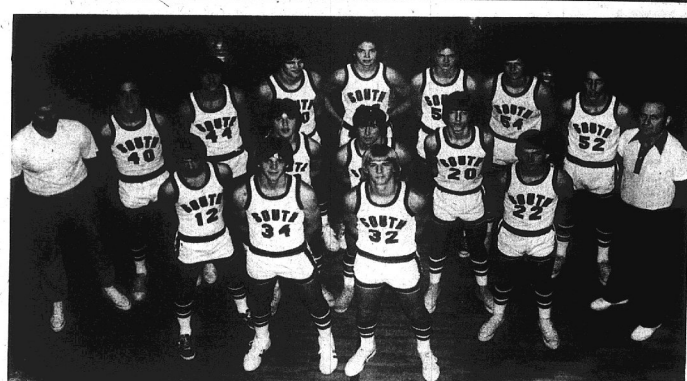

"I'd say we'll have six real fine ball players at the outset," said Deterding. "But that doesn't mean the other guys aren't talented and move up quickly." Vaughn is an excellent ball-handler," said Deterding. "Of course, his size (5-8) does hurt him a little, but he's trying to make up for it with ability and quickness." "If we're going to be a better than average ball club, he's going to have to do his job." Blasingame is a pretty good jumper, Huebner a good shooter, Parker is probably the most versatile player we have on the floor, and Treter is getting more confidence as he goes along."

Deterding said he felt Treter could do the job shooting all along last season...it was just a matter of proving it to himself. "When he came in late in the season and scored 20 points against Madison, I think he finally realized he could shoot the ball. I hope his self-confidence carries over."

"The sixth man off the bench this season will be 5-9 guard Mike DeGonia. "Mike could be a best percentage shooter on the team," said Deterding. "He's coming along well and will see a lot of action this season."

A surprise off the Warriors' bench might be 6-3 forward Brent Houston. "He could be a sleepy," said Deterding. "He's a very coachable kid and has shown tremendous improvement over the summer and during practice."

South will begin its season, as it has the past two seasons — by playing in the Red Hill Tournament in Bridgeport, Ill. Dec. 1 and 2. "The tournament's a super way for us to get the kinks out," said Deterding. "The competition may not be as tough as what we'll face later in the year, but I think getting off on the right foot and gaining a little confidence and momentum is very important. "But there are some good teams at Bridgeport."

South will face Edwards County on the first game of the round-robin affair Dec. 1 at 7 p.m.

Granite City South basketball fans will get their first chance to see the Warriors in action this Monday, Nov. 27 in an intra-squad game at the Memorial Gym beginning at 7:30 p.m. There will be no admission charge.

First SIUE cage game Saturday

By AL BARNES
for the Press-Record
EDWARDSVILLE — The 1978-79 Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville basketball team will inaugurate its season Saturday night at Mobile, Ala., in a major test against the Jaguars of the University of South Alabama.

South Alabama is one of seven NCAA Division I schools the Cougars of Coach Jim Dudley will face this season. The others are: U. of Nevada, Reno; Kansas State; U. of Northern Colorado; the U. of Wyoming; Illinois State U., and St. Louis U.

Starting his ninth season as head coach at SIUE, Dudley has put together a winning 109-99 record as head Cougar cage coach. However, the past two seasons have been just under .500.

Now, after a grueling six weeks of pre-season drills, and three tough intra-squad games under game conditions, Dudley feels his charges are ready to go. In all three intra-squad games, Dudley's main eight have poured in 100 or more points. There's no doubt about their offensive potential, just ask the fans who saw the White (varsity) team beat the Reds, 102-90, Saturday night at Edwardsville High School gym.

They saw Junior Jerome (Baby Jay) Nelson pour in 32 points to match senior guard Bennie Lewis' like number. Playing with Lewis, at center, was Bill Branz, who contributed 31 points to the winning cause. Vic Dozier, who was a teammate of Lewis at Lincoln High in East St. Louis, hit on nine of 14 shots for 18 points and pulled down eight rebounds.

Success won't spoil Terry

By STAN BRANDMEYER
for the Press-Record

EDWARDSVILLE — Success will not spoil Terry Trushel. The straight-forward right halfback on the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville soccer Cougars propped his feet up and referred to the local television coverage of their latest practice session. "We're going to be on TV," he said calmly, as if it were an everyday happening.

Trushel, shirtless and clad in gym shorts seemed as relaxed as a weekend fisherman in spite of the upcoming midwest playoffs.

He spoke of his family with deep sincerity. "I like them to be proud of me. No other member of our family really played sports but me. I guess I just want my folks to see me do good."

TERRY TRUSHEL

An idea of Trushel's value as a soccer player is realized when you know he was co-captain with the Cougars' scoring ace, Don Ebert, while at Rosary High School.

The Cougars this year have a youthful spirit and outlook. "Other teams are made up of imports who are about 25 years old and still a junior. We just show we can compete on their level. We also have no back-biting competition among our players; it's a total team effort. If anything, we want our teammates to look good," Trushel said.

The Cougars are currently ranked fifth in the nation, and Trushel sees this as an asset. "It's a good place to strike from. We're up close enough to capture a first, and far enough back so other teams might overlook us," he said.

Path for Madison might be tougher this time

By KEVIN ALLEN of the Press-Record

MADISON — The Madison High School basketball Trojans the past few years have been almost boringly consistent, if it's possible for winning to be boring.

This year looked to be more of the same until injuries started dropping players from the Trojans' ranks, and going into the opener tonight against St. Paul, the path to the top for the Trojans may be steeper than anticipated.

"If we can get by our first few games, we'll be all right," said Madison coach Larry Graham. "We've lost a few of our starters to injuries and we're playing much tougher teams this year, especially at the beginning."

Graham's starting five shapes up like this: Eric Stanley, 6'2" senior, will open at center; the forwards will be Kenny Stanley, a 6'2" senior, and Carlyn Jackson, also a 6'2" senior; and the guards spots will be filled by James Beard, 5'2" senior and Ricky Powers, a 5'9" junior.

Three of these starters, according to Graham, are not at their full potential. "Heard can't lift his left arm above his head, Ken Stanley isn't 100 percent, and Jackson has a foot injury," he said.

One of the top candidates for the ball-handling guard spot, Ted Willis, was hurt in practice. Graham said he might be lost for the season.

"We were somewhat limited to begin with," said Graham. "We've only had 12 organized practices until now because most of our players were on the football team. So we've been trying to get into condition and work on game situations at the same time."

MADISON HIGH 1978-79 Basketball Prospects

Roster: Tyrone Echols (5-9 Jr. guard), Kenny Stanley (6-2 Sr. forward), James Heard (5-11 Sr. guard), Ricky Powers (5-10 Jr. guard), Todd Willis (5-9 Sr. guard), Carlyn Jackson (6-2 Jr. forward), Crafont Walker (6-0 Sr. forward), Morris Hughes (6-1 Soph. forward), Charles Caggert (5-11 Soph. forward), Kerry Guest (6-1 Jr. forward), Tommy Leonard (5-9 Sr. guard), Eric Stanley (6-2 Sr. center-forward), Earnest Davenport (6-0 Sr. forward).

The Trojans will use Tyrone Echols, a 5'8" junior guard, Morris Hughes, 6'1" sophomore forward, and Kerry Guest, 6'0" junior forward as the top three substitutes. If the injured starters can't overcome their setbacks, these three could see considerable playing time.

Madison only averages 69". Graham hopes to compensate for this by jumbling ability, strength, rebounding and quickness. "Our lack of height might be a problem, especially against the Class AA (large school) schools. We play pretty big though," said the coach.

"We're awful little but we're very quick."

Shooting ability is not one of the Trojans' strong points, however. "We've just never been a real good shooting team like we could be. If we could shoot we'd be almost unbeatable," said Graham.

Graham said he thought his team would be well balanced this season. Last season the top scorer had a 12.5 point per game average compared to a 10 point per game average for the lowest on the team. Graham said he didn't think anyone would dominate scoring this year either.

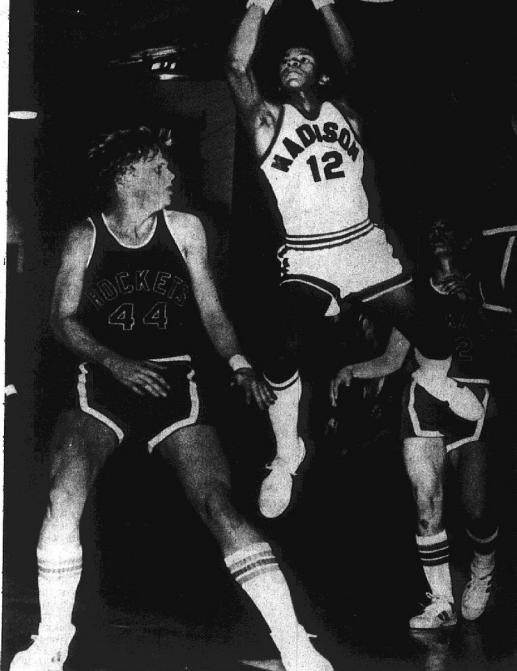

The Trojans, according to Graham, will be tough on defense. Leading the defensive unit will be James Heard. The senior guard, who was a member of the all-state team last year, is described by his coach as a great defensive player with super quickness. Inside, the Trojans will depend on center Eric Stanley. Graham will use Stanley for defending the opponents top inside man and will rely on him for strong rebounding.

Offensively, Madison is led by Ken Stanley who led the Trojans in scoring last year. Carlyn Jackson is probably the Trojans' best offensive passer and rebounder. He had the best shooting percentage last season.

Graham and his team had better be ready because they face an even tougher schedule than a year ago. The coach listed St. Paul, Venice, Granite North and South, and East St. Louis among the toughest opponents Madison will face. He said, as always, Venice and Lebanon will be the Trojans' biggest rivals.

Madison will once again play in the Christmas tournament at Breese Mater Del, a tournament the Trojans have won two years in a row. The Dupo tournament in January is also scheduled.

Graham, who will begin his 10th year as coach at Madison this season, has a 158-72 record with the Trojans, winning the Illinois State Class A (small school) championship in 1976. Can he duplicate that feat this year? "Our season record may be tough," he said, "but when tournament time comes, and if we get a break, we could go all the way."

'Wild and crazy' card helps create a million dollar lady

How do you become an "instant millionaire"? Helen Tokarski, 54, an assistant manager at Kee's Department Store, Springfield, regularly bought five state lottery tickets a week before winning $1 million Thursday, Nov. 16, in the Three of a Kind grand prize drawing in Cahokia. Mrs. Tokarski became the lottery's 25th millionaire when she matched two jacks and a joker for three of a kind in what was billed as the world's biggest card game.

"The first thing I want to do is thank God," said Mrs. Tokarski. "Then I'm going to help my son and grandchildren. I'm doing it all for them."

One of the first things she wants to do with her money is visit a brother in Alaska. "I was going to see him anyway," said Mrs. Tokarski. "But now I'll be

4 charged in burglary

Brian Clifford Cunningham, 18, of 1634 Second St., Madison, was named in an informational document from the Madison County state's attorney's office Monday afternoon alleging burglary.

His bond was set at $25,000. Three juveniles also were taken to the Madison County Juvenile Detention Home at Edwardsville pending the filing of juvenile charges in the same case.

The four allegedly burglarized Ben's Bicycle Shop, 1834 State St., Sunday afternoon, removing items valued at about $100.

Witnesses alleged seeing two youths leave the building and walk south in the alley. Officers stopped boys, ages 15 and 16, nearby and questioned them.

A bicycle, three tires, and inner tube, two locks, a cable, two tools and four sets of handlebar grips were recovered from behind 1822 State Street. A 14-year-old later was arrested and Cunningham was taken into custody two hours after the burglary.

Also taken from the bicycle shop were a broken cash register, four reflectors, a box of tools, another lock and 11 other inner tubes, police were told.

Arrests follow disturbance

Daniel Lorey, 27, Detroit, Mich., was charged with disorderly conduct and George Stepaniak, 25, of 1947a Delmar Ave., was charged with battery after a disturbance at Ruby's Cafe, 2405 Illinois Ave., at 7:05 p.m. Monday.

Stepaniak allegedly struck a juvenile boy with his fist and Lorey allegedly used loud and abusive language and attempted to break a juke box.

Two men and a woman left in an auto with Michigan license plates which police located near 20th Street and Delmar Avenue a short time later.

able to see him much sooner." She will receive her winnings in annual payments of $50,000 for 20 years.

The nine other finalists in the Three of a Kind drawing also won cash prizes. Second prize of $25,000 went to Florence Howard, East St. Louis; third prize of $20,000, Dorothy Brust, Mound City; fourth prize of $15,000, Beatrice Mocarski, Chicago.

Fifth prize of $10,000 went to Kevin Stutz, Montgomery. And five additional finalists each won $5,000 — Charles J. Garner, Eastcanda, Ore.; Margaret McCarthy, Chicago; Robert McLarney, also of Chicago, and Estelle Morgan, St. Louis. The ten finalists were randomly picked at a regular weekly drawing in Waukegan on Oct. 28 from a drum containing the names of 4,400 players.

Santos Mireles Jr., Chicago,

Each of these qualifiers had been entered automatically by matching either three kings or three queens in the game and winning $500 and $100 cash, respectively.

The last big cash lottery winner had been Raymond Kosmicki, Chicago, who won $500 a week for life in the Zodiac Grand Prize drawing Aug. 17 at the Illinois State Fair.

(BUTCH) BOSKAY, November 22, 1971. It hardly seems true, 4 years has slipped by. My heart hasn't healed. Too often I still cry. You were beckoned so suddenly. To Jesus' side. That I couldn't accept the fact you'd died. I don't see God's purpose. In the day. Meets the silver stars of the night. She has found her reward. In the Home of the Father. The Illinois State Bar Association, a voluntary organization with membership of more than 20,000 lawyers and law students, is governed by an Assembly of 180 members.

A Board of Governors of 23 members acts as the assembly's executive committee. More than 700 lawyers belong to the working sections and committees of that Association.

There are 27 sections, 29 standing committees and 12 special committees, plus three joint committees with The Chicago Bar Association.

The sections' major functions are to study and draft laws for introduction in the Illinois General Assembly; to help present post-law school lectures for lawyers, to study practice and procedure problems, and to work for modernization of the Illinois court system.

Among major functions of the committees are the study of ways and means of making lawyers' services readily accessible to the public through legal aid for the indigent, and lawyer referral and prepaid legal services for those who are not indigent.

Also, promotion of the welfare of the mentally disabled; study of computerized legal research; investigation of unauthorized practice of the law; the advertising of lawyers' services, and many other activities intended to be of benefit to the public and the legal profession.

JOB INTERVIEW SKIT is one of many "happenings" during Granite City High School North open house in relation to National Education week. From left are Lia Salem, skit moderator; Lisa Randall as the perfect job applicant; John Hartung, the interviewer; Lynda Loftus, a not-so-perfect secretary; Beth

'Local control of schools depends on local taxation'

"The citizens of Illinois are sending their school boards two messages that are contradictory," says the president of the Illinois Association of School Boards, Jonathan T. Howe.

Speaking at the annual meeting of the IASB ending this week in Chicago, Howe said citizens are demanding a greater voice in the education of their children and in the way school dollars are spent.

On the other hand, he said, many of those same citizens would force schools to rely more and more on state and federal aid — and accompanying state and federal regulations — by reducing or eliminating the local property tax.

"These demands for less local taxing and more local control are contradictory," Howe said. "School boards find themselves in the impossible situation of trying to give citizens more control over schools at a time when that control is being shifted to state and federal levels."

"The local property tax is the only tax that the average voter has any control over," Howe said. "And it is the only tax the local school board can levy. Eliminate local taxes and you eliminate local control."

A school board member in Northbrook, Howe spoke to a group of board members and administrators during a panel session on "The Taxpayer Revolt." It was one of 35 separate sessions on school problems conducted during the conference.

Howe said citizens wanting greater voice in school affairs must press for fewer state and federal controls as well as an equitable system of property taxes.

"There are indeed inequities in the present system," he said. "Some school districts are forced to rely too heavily on property taxes. However, the best solution may be to improve the system — not throw it out or put artificial caps on spending."

Howe said that state ceilings on local spending would prevent communities from increasing school budgets even when local citizens want to do so.

"The average citizen has little control over income taxes or sales taxes," Howe noted. "To turn control of school budgets over to the state and federal governments is to turn over to them virtually all of citizens' voice in school affairs."

Howe urged school boards to work toward greater fairness in the property tax system and to explain to their constituents the importance of local taxing authority.

Births decline, deaths increase

Forty-one fewer births occurred in Madison County during October than in the same month a year ago, while deaths increased by 99, according to vital statistics report by County Clerk Evelyn Bowles.

Marriages in the county last month decreased by 18, the report shows.

Miss Bowles reported a total of 381 births last month — 141 boys and 141 girls — compared with 323 births — 167 boys and 156 girls — in October 1977.

There was a total of 220 deaths last month, down from 161 in October last year.

Marriages in October totaled 221, down from 239 a year ago.

The work will allow an entrance to the church from Madison Avenue.

Goal is 4% jobless

President Carter has signed the Humphrey-Hawkins Bill, setting a four percent unemployment rate by 1983 as a national goal.

At the same time, the president signed legislation to extend the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA), with amendments designed to make job training and placement programs more effective.

Most of the CETA provisions are extended for four years.

In addition to setting a four percent unemployment goal, the Humphrey-Hawkins Bill:

— Requires the president in his annual economic report to set forth numerical goals for employment, unemployment, production and real income for five years ahead.

— Requires that policies be enumerated to reach these goals.

If, in the second year it is necessary to change the fifth-year four percent goal, the bill provides that the president may modify the timetable for reaching that goal.

The bill requires the president to develop supplementary employment programs and policies which he feels are needed to reach the overall economic goals.

Without setting specific requirements, the bill lists the following as possible approaches:

1. Countercyclical employment programs, including public works, public service employment and revenue sharing.

2. Regional and structural employment policies to reduce unemployment among special groups, and uncertain areas.

3. Youth employment programs to expand opportunities for young people.

4. Job training and counseling to prepare individuals for employment and help them obtain private-sector jobs.

The bill calls for review of the president's economic goals and policies by the Joint Economic Committee of Congress and the Senate and House Budget Committees.

In a declaration of policy, the bill:

— Establishes as a national goal the fulfillment of the right of all Americans able, willing and seeking work — to full opportunities for fair paid employment at fair rates of compensation.

— Declares it the policy responsibility of the federal government to use all practicable means to promote full employment, production and real income balances growth and reasonable price stability.

— Declares, for the first time in law, that inflation is a major national problem.

The CETA amendments of 1978 are the result of a year-long effort by the Carter administration and Congress to extend and make major revisions in federally-funded employment and training programs.

The reauthorization continues the decentralized program operated by state and local governments, designed to be responsive to diverse local needs.

But it focuses CETA resources more sharply on those most in need. And it places more emphasis on training, as opposed to public service employment.

The changes are intended to simplify administrative and paperwork requirements and strengthen safeguards against fraud and abuse.

The new program makes a clear distinction between efforts to help the "structurally" unemployed. And it is aimed at those individuals who may become thrown out of work by cyclical downturns in the economy.

For the first time, the size of the anti-cyclical programs is automatically keyed to the nationwide unemployment rate.

The reauthorization also extends youth employment demonstration programs, started last year as part of the president's economic stimulus program.

Several new program initiatives and services are authorized, the most important being a new Title VII — emphasizing private-sector participation in employment and training, and welfare demonstration programs.

Special programs and services are to be authorized for additional groups facing special disadvantages in the labor market, including displaced homemakers, the middle-aged and older workers facing severe problems in obtaining work.

Cleaning leather coats needs special process

By CATHERINE R. MAUCK

Madison County Extension Adviser, Home Economics

When its time to have your leather or suede coat cleaned, give the job to a professional leather cleaner. Because leather is not a woven fabric, it requires a special cleaning process. If the cleaner is competent, the garment will not be spoiled.

The cost is fairly high. Professional leather cleaners may charge about $15 for a short jacket, $18 for finger-tip jackets, and $20 to $22 for full-length coats.

Don't expect a cleaned leather garment to look exactly as it did when you bought it. Leather and suede are less stable than wool, and cleaning causes some changes in animal skins.

Because pig skin has little nap, differences between skins will become more obvious. The garment may lose oil and color. And stains are hard to remove. Cowhide, too, may lose oil and color. The hair may pick up lint. A competent professional leather cleaner will keep these problems to a minimum.

A poorly made coat will not clean well no matter how competent the cleaner. Your best bet against disappointment is to buy a well-made coat and then patronize the best professional leather cleaner you know.

While the garment will not look new after cleaning, the changes in appearance should be slight. If there is a major change in color or the surface is very greasy, you may suspect the cleaner overdid the job. In this case the cleaner may be liable.

Large number at GC North open house

Granite City High School North hosted a capacity crowd at an open house Thursday evening.

The program opened in the school cafeteria with a welcome by Chris Rogenski, Student Council president, followed by an address by Gilbert Walmesley, the North School Principal.

Walmesley noted a growing demand for larger facilities at North and the growing trend of a population movement toward the North High area. He cited excellent reports given by substitute teachers concerning the behavior of the students at North, and the discipline retained throughout the building by staff and students.

The address was followed by choral selections by the Madrigal choral group under the direction of Gail Mueller. Special entertainment was supplied by the North High Pep Band, and the national award winning Pom-Pom Squad and Flag and Rifle Groups under the direction of Robert D. Todoroff.

After the entertainment, the parents visited departments and conferred with teachers.
